Motorservice

With original spare parts at Automechanika Shanghai 2019

Motorservice, the spare parts division of Rheinmetall Automotive, will exhibit at Automechanika Shanghai 2019 in Hall 2.1, at booth number E112.

Automechanika, international trade fair for automotive parts, equipment and service suppliers, takes place from December 3rd to 6th at Shanghai National Convention and Exhibition Center.

On 60 m², Motorservice will display original spare parts for passenger cars and commercial vehicles of international manufacturers. The aftermarket division distributes spare parts by Kolbenschmidt, Pierburg, TRW Engine Components and BF Germany. This year Automechanika takes place for the 15th time and features over 6,300 international exhibitors and numerous events.

“For the Asia Pacific region, Automechanika Shanghai is a very important trade fair to meet with automotive wholesalers and workshops”, says Hans-Peter Tuerk, President of MS Motorservice Asia Pacific. “We offer a broad variety of training materials and therefore the regular exchange is important for our clients and for us.”, he continues. “Automechanika is a great platform to meet and network with the industry and we are looking forward to attending this year, for the 5th time.”

MS Motorservice Asia Pacific Co., Ltd. is a subsidiary of MS Motorservice International GmbH which is headquartered in Neuenstadt, Germany. The company delivers spare parts to over 120 countries worldwide.
